DEPARTMENT HEAD

PUBLIC HEALTH

Cathy Bambrick, Public Health Administrator, presented a bid for furniture for the Upper County office space. She said she was surprised to learn that the furniture in the current space does not belong to Public Health. She said the small exam room will have cupboards installed, as well as a sink.

Vice-Chairman Jewell asked if they had asked for bids locally. She replied that she had received three bids and Harris was the lowest. The bid included installation and she said she had the funds to pay for it in her budget.
