REGULAR MEETING

DEPARTMENT HEAD

AUDITOR

Jerry Pettit, Auditor indicated that recently the Accountant from Public Health had accepted a new position outside of the County. He explained that when that position in Public Health opened, one of his staff members applied for the position and was successful in the interview process and accepted the position with the Public Health Department. He explained that he would like permission to fill the Accountant position in his office.

The Board approved the request to fill the vacant position.
