

PROCLAMATION

“I AM PREPARED” DISASTER AWARENESS MONTH January 2014

WHEREAS, disasters have and will occur again in Kittitas County, which may cause significant damage to public and private property, cause a disruption of public services and loss of infrastructures, such as roads and bridges, limiting access to and from communities in Kittitas County; and

WHEREAS, communities and individuals must be resilient until relief efforts can be established, and public services restored; and

WHEREAS, we cannot predict but we can prepare; and

WHEREAS, the key to resiliency is having a disaster preparedness plan, and your basic needs to survive, assembled in advance; and

WHEREAS, the responding agencies are committed to assisting the community in preparedness and resiliency training; and

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Commissioners of Kittitas County, do hereby proclaim the month of January, 2014 as “I am Prepared” Disaster Awareness Month.

Proclaimed this 7th day of January 2014.

BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS
KITITAS COUNTY, WASHINGTON

Chairman

Vice-Chairman

Commissioner

Attest:

Julie Kjorsvik, Clerk of the Board