Seating

Seating for this event will be festival style seating. This means that there will be general admission with the venue being a large open area and patrons will have to bring their own seating i.e. chairs or blankets. The “seating” will be filled on a first come first served basis.

Food & Beverage

Swiftwater Cellars will be serving various foods that will be prepared onsite in our cooking facilities as covered under our Kittitas County Public Health Department “General food services food level 3/ Supplemental Catering” Permit. The permit number is FE-13-00061 and is valid through October 31, 2014. All staff that will be handling food will have valid food handler’s permits. Beer, wine, and select hard alcohol will be available during the concert. Swiftwater Cellars staff will be on hand to check IDs for all patrons who will be consuming alcohol and staff will also be roaming the venue looking for any alcohol consumption violations that may occur.

Bathroom Facilities

Currently, the Swiftwater Cellars Amphitheater has 8 fixed restroom units. We will be bringing an additional 7 restrooms and 2 hand washing stations to handle the crowd of approximately 800 people. With a total of 15 restrooms, approximately 7 will be for males and 8 for females. Please see the attached map for the proposed restroom locations that are marked with an X. Patrons will not need to more than 100 feet to reach a restroom from anywhere inside the venue. There will also be 2 restrooms and a hand washing station located at the offsite parking location. M.T.H Septic Service will be providing the portable units for our event. The address for M.T.H Septic Service is 281 Hugh Banks Road, Cle Elum, WA 98922.

Security

Swiftwater Cellars staff will be providing security for the event. We anticipate have 10-15 staff members onsite for security during the event to keep patrons safe and assist in controlling human traffic in an orderly fashion. Leena Haija will be the event manager at the concert. We also plan on having 2 off-duty deputies onsite for any disturbances and safety concerns. There will also be an additional 20-30 Swiftwater Cellars staff members onsite handling various functions for the event.

EMS Services

We have an agreement with Fire District 7 and they will provide an onsite team to handle any EMS needs that may arise during the event.

Traffic Control

Parking at the event venue will be extremely limited and all event attendees will be encouraged to park at the offsite parking location. Please see the offsite parking plan below. Handicap access parking spots will be maintained at the event venue for patrons displaying a state certified placard.

Offsite Parking

Event patrons will be instructed to park at the Nelson Dairy Farm located on Suncadia Property. Parking attendants will be at the offsite location to direct traffic and maintain safety at the location. Any patrons staying at the Suncadia Lodge can park there and take the Suncadia shuttle to the venue.

Shuttle Buses

Shuttle buses will be provided for patrons parking at the Nelson Dairy Farm. There will be 2 buses shuttling between the venue and offsite parking.

Garbage/Recycling

We have a contract with Waste Management of Ellensburg and they will bring additional dumpsters to our location to handle the increased amount of garbage produced by the event.

Insurance

Swiftwater Cellars current certificate of liability has been included with the Kittitas County event application. Kittitas County will be receiving a new certificate of liability from the Swiftwater Cellars insurance agent prior to the policy expiration date and Kittitas County will be named as an insured certificate holder.
