OK, I'll trust your judgement.

Looking at the site plan and the parcel configuration it appears to me that the well is forty feet from an adjoining property in different ownership (Henshaw) which is not part of the requested BLA. I don't think we are in a position to do anything about that within the context of this application but...? The other parcel's well head although no measurement is given, appears close to the east boundary, but again, not impacted by the requested alteration. Let me know what if anything can or should be done...

I'll be here...

Jeff,

I have some questions on this one. It appears that the well(s) may not be 50 feet from the property lines in this one.
