I tried to get the Treasurer to sign off today but apparently one of Mr. Flatau's parcels is caught in transit with the mortgage company or something. If you hear of anything let me know, I'll keep it warm.

Dear Jeff:

Thanks for the update on the Compliance Ordinance. Also, the 2013 taxes for the City of Cle Elum were paid in full yesterday and Dave dropped off the information to CDS yesterday. The BLA should be ready for final approval.

Have a nice day and thanks again for all your help,

Ginger :]

That looks familiar; it's gotta be here on the pile... thanks we'll get that done probably early next week. I have a couple of one time split short plats that need to get deemed complete for vesting purposes just to be on the safe side. It does appear that the board is going to move the effective date for 2013-001 (Compliance ordinance) to May 1... so if you have anybody hangin around for OTSs or intervening ownership they might live another month.

Dear Jeff:

I am pretty sure you got a copy but just in case attached is a PDF of the recorded survey.

Thanks for all your help,

Ginger :]

Dear Jeff:

Mr. Flatau has paid his 2013 taxes in full on his two parcels involved in the above BLA. The first half was paid by his bank and the Treasurer's Office informed him that they will get that check posted tomorrow. It appears that the City of Cle Elum parcel still has not paid their full 2013 amount of $38.30 but that will get taken care of by the first of next week.

Have a great day,

Ginger :]
