Yes, you can issue the letter, they can commence permitted activity, and not, there doesn't need to be any special language saying that the permit is potentially subject to appeal. Thanks.

Dear Neil,

NMF Enterprises has met all conditions for their ACU. The appeal period for the MDNS and the decision started today, each being 10 working days. Legally can I issue an approval letter for the ACU prior to the appeal period being completed? If so is there any special language that needs to be added stating that they are subject to the 10 day appeal period?

Thank you,
