Thanks Lindsey! I saw some of the documents were dated in April and I figured I just plain missed it and was going to blame pregnancy brain. ;-)

I appreciate your response!

Hi Jen.

They just posted the site. We have not issued a notice of Application yet. So the public comment period has not even begun yet. You can view all info on our website as always. You, Brent and Scott are always on our email notice list.

Hi Lindsey,
I was driving by Cle Elum over the weekend and noticed the sign posted for this property. I totally missed any announcements from your office and was wondering when the public comment period expired for this project.

Thanks for any help you can offer,
Jen
