I will do my best to get the comments to you on August 10, 2021.

If the comments indicate that your application packet is complete and no changes are needed, then we have 30 days from the date you turned in the application packet to finalize the plat. If comments indicate that the application is not complete, then it will be returned to you and the 30 day timeframe will begin again once you submit a completed application.

Hope that helps!

Thank you for the quick response. You mentioned comments are due back August 9th. How long after that until we are notified what the comments are. What is the time frame of review after we turn the revised plat per the comments?

Good morning Mr. Kendall,

I sent your project out for comment last Monday, August 6, 2021. Comments are due back to me by 5pm next Monday August 9, 2021.

Nothing is needed from you at this time. I will send you all the comments that are received during the comment period after it closes.

Thank you,

Good morning Rachael checking in the status of the Final plat approval process. What portion of review are we at? Do you know when we may have comments back if any? What are the next steps that I can complete to help keep the process going in a timely manner? If you can update me today that would be very helpful.

Thank you.
Have a good day.
