Yes, you can just place your email to me regarding his reasoning in the file.

Thanks,

I talked to Mr. Akehurst on the phone. He said the reason he needs an extension is because he's having a hard time finding a developer to build the road. He is 89 and says he's just too old for email. Is it ok if I just note the reason and do not require him to mail it in to me?

Good morning,

In reviewing this application, he has not provided a narrative with any additional information besides the application itself. Is this something I deem incomplete or do I need to just reach out to him to get the information?

Thanks.
