7/26/2021 - Yakama requested a survey if the proposed structure will extend eastward from the current footprint.

The following language was added to the Shoreline Exemption letter:

Please be aware your project is located in an area of high significance for potential cultural resources. Should ground disturbing or other activities related to the proposed project result in the inadvertent discovery of cultural or archaeological materials, work shall be stopped in the immediate area and contact be made with the Washington State Department of Archaeology and Historic Preservation (DAHP) and the Yakama Tribe. Work shall remain suspended until the find is assessed and appropriate consultation is conducted. Should human remains be inadvertently discovered, as dictated by Washington State RCW 27.44.055, work shall be immediately halted in the area and contact made with the coroner and local law enforcement in the most expeditious manner possible.
