Good afternoon Mr. Crowley.

I have completed input of your project file. I will have the deem complete letter sent out to you and the other two property owners next Tuesday and will have the notice of application published by the end of next week. There is a 15 day comment period that begins with the notice of application. Once that is complete and all comments/info received is reviewed by staff, staff then can render their preliminary decision.

Regards,

Thanks Lindsey for your email. My short plat modification is simple as all I am looking to do is to remove the access easement from the plat map (so that I can put the driveway in a location that makes sense). No other changes to the plat map are contemplated. I'm happy answer any other questions you might have!

Regards,

Brian

Good afternoon Mr. Crowley,

I apologize for the confusion regarding your short plat submittal SP-15-00006. It was determined last week that I am the planner of record for your proposal. I will be in touch with you prior to the end of this week as to the status of your project and hopefully have it deemed complete and ready for the public comment process to begin in the next week or two.

Please keep my contact information handy as is listed below and let me know if you have any questions. Again, I appreciate your patience.

Sincerely,

Lindsey Ozbolt

Hi Kaycee,

We chatted briefly on the phone yesterday regarding my Short Plat application. I filed this on December 11th in order to remove the joint access easement from the plat map. I'm just looking for an update on where this application is in the process as it's been a while and I have not heard anything yet.

Thanks for your help.

Brian Crowley
