Hi Kelly,

There was a time where I was issuing Deemed Complete letters for stand alone SEPA applications before I discovered it was unnecessary. If you look at SE-19-00019 Bielaski, you will see the appropriate procedure. Let me know if you have any questions.

Subject: SEPA

Good morning,

I am trying to learn my way through the stand alone SEPA process with Brown and Jackson. I've found a few files that had deemed complete letters, but found out that we do not issue a deemed complete for SEPA, so now I am searching for a stand alone project that has a Notice of Application and I'm having issues. Is there a different type of notice that is sent out for SEPA?

Thank you for the help.
