ARTICLE IX INDEMNIFICATION

The County agrees to indemnify, defend and hold the City, its elected and appointed officials, employees, agents and volunteers, harmless from and against any and all claims, damages, losses and expenses, including but not limited to court costs, attorney's fees and alternative dispute resolution costs, for any personal injury, for any bodily injury, sickness, disease or death and for any damage to or destruction of any property (including the loss of use resulting therefrom) which are alleged or proven to be caused by an act or omission, negligent or otherwise, of the County's elected and appointed officials, employees, agents or volunteers.

The City agrees to indemnify, defend and hold the County, its elected and appointed officials, employees, agents and volunteers, harmless from and against any and all claims, damages, losses and expenses, including but not limited to court costs, attorney's fees and alternative dispute resolution costs, for any personal injury, for any bodily injury, sickness, disease or death and for any damage to or destruction of any property (including the loss of use resulting therefrom) which are alleged or proven to be caused by an act or omission, negligent or otherwise, of the City's elected and appointed officials, employees, agents or volunteers.

A Party shall not be required to indemnify, defend, or hold the other Party harmless if the claim, damage, loss or expense for personal injury, for any bodily injury, sickness, disease or death or for any damage to or destruction of any property (including the loss of use resulting therefrom) is caused by the sole act or omission of the other Party.

In the event of any concurrent act or omission of the Parties, negligent or otherwise, these indemnity provisions shall be valid and enforceable only to the extent of each Party's comparative liability.

The indemnification obligations of the Parties shall not be limited in any way by the Washington State Industrial Insurance Act, RCW Title 51, or by application of any other workmen's compensation act, disability benefit act or other employee benefit act. Each Party hereby expressly waives any immunity afforded by such acts to the extent required by a Party's obligations to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other Party or Parties. A Party's waiver of immunity does not extend to claims made by its employees directly against the Party as employer. The foregoing indemnification obligations of the Parties are a material inducement to enter into this Agreement and have been mutually negotiated.

An indemnified Party under this section reserves the right, but not the obligation, to participate in the defense of any claim, damages, losses or expenses and such participation shall not constitute a waiver of the indemnifying party's indemnity obligations under this Agreement.

The Parties hereby certify that these indemnification provisions were mutually negotiated and agreed to by the Parties, and will survive the completion, expiration, or termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE X PERFORMANCE OF AGREEMENT
