others: mandy robinson, deputy clerk of the board; don anderson, deputy prosecutor; clayton myers, undersheriff; kirk eslinger, hr director.

special meeting     jail lieutenant position     sheriff at 9:30 a.m. chairman mcclain opened a special meeting to discuss jail lieutenant position within the teamsters local 760 union. undersheriff myers explained that this is currently a vacant position in the jail. he indicated a desire to move the position into the union and have the position be salary/exempt he indicated that the position will have no hiring or firing authority.

commissioner crankovich questioned if this position was originally in the union and had been removed from it, and if so why?

undersheriff myers indicated that the position was never union.

chairman mcclain questioned if this position was just managing then why did it need to be a lieutenant?

undersheriff myers indicated that the position would be supervising to sergeant’s as well as the day to day operations of the jail.

kirk eslinger reviewed union, civil service type positions. he indicated his willingness to approach the union on the issue but requested the support of two commissioners before doing so.

undersheriff myers reviewed how overtime could potentially effect this position and why moving this position into the union would make the position more attractive.

the commissioners gave direction to staff to have kirk eslinger, hr director look into the civil service status and have questions answered regarding union structure and salary, before approaching the union, then come back to the commissioners for their support of moving the position.
