SPECIAL MEETING

STATE BUDGET

COMMISSIONERS

Chairman O'Brien opened a Special Meeting continued from June 26, 2013 to provide an update on the State budget status.

Chairman O'Brien stated that at this point the County is trusting that the Governor will sign the budget by 5:00 P.M. today. He stated that as of right now the plan is for Monday to be business as usual.

Commissioner Berndt reviewed his interpretation of the current status of where the budget is heading towards.

The Board encouraged departments with potentially impacted staff to try and avoid working on things where the time is charged to potentially impacted grants.

Patti Johnson, Solid Waste Director/Project Manager indicated that until she hears for sure that the grants are safe, the hazardous waste facility will be closed on Monday or until she hears the grant is alright she said the litter crew will be pulling weeds until she hears differently.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:45 p.m.
