COVID-19

COMMISSIONERS

At 10:02 a.m. Chairman Wachsmith opened the Special Meeting for planning and updates relating to COVID-19.

The Board discussed the overview from Sheriff Myer's briefing and there were concerns of people not being able to hear on Webex. Each Commissioner provided information relating to projects they were working on including economic recovery and available funding to businesses.

There were concerns expressed about CDS not continuing to process applications and their operations. Staff was directed to schedule a meeting with the Board, Dan Carlson, CDS Director; Chris Horner, Deputy Prosecutor; Lisa Young, Human Resource Director; and Greg Zempel, Prosecutor.

Chairman Wachsmith provided a report on economic recovery and work that's being done within the County.

Commissioner Wright questioned what could be done to be a part of the interface of the EOC for better communication and messaging points for the new website. Commissioner Osiadacz said she's been receiving very good responses from the EOC whenever she's had questions and they've all been very helpful. Chairman Wachsmith agreed and said they've been very responsive, despite how busy they are.

Julie Kjorsvik, Clerk of the Board said Taylor Crouch, Deputy Clerk of the Board I, would be responding to voicemail's that are left and she will triage their concerns to make sure they get in touch with the appropriate Commissioner.
