

"Building Partnerships – Building Communities"

Revised Draft Vision Statements from October Advisory Group Meetings

Economic Development Advisory Group:

Kittitas County is an area with a distinct rural quality based upon the value and assortment of cultural, natural and healthy environments. It provides safe and effective multi-modal transportation and available, safe and affordable housing. Kittitas County demonstrates its commitment to quality of life, through access to recreational opportunities, support for a diverse rural and agricultural economy, and promotion of a variety of employment opportunities

Housing Advisory Group:

Kittitas County is an area with a distinct rural quality based upon the value and assortment of cultural and natural environments. Kittitas County demonstrates its commitment to quality of life by:

- ensuring a diverse rural economy comprised of a variety of small-scale employment opportunities
- promoting an ample supply of safe and affordable housing for all income levels
- providing safe and effective multi-modal transportation, and
- ensuring access to recreational opportunities.

Land Use Advisory Group:

Kittitas County is an area with a distinct rural quality based upon the value and assortment of cultural and natural environments. It provides safe and effective multi-modal transportation. It promotes an abundant supply of safe and affordable housing for all economic segments. Provides access to recreational opportunities, diverse rural and agricultural economies, a variety of employment opportunities, all of which demonstrate Kittitas County's commitment to quality of life.

Recreation and Natural Environment Advisory Group:

Kittitas County has a distinct rural quality. This quality is based on the value and wide range of cultural and natural and environments and healthy lifestyles. It provides safe and effective transportation with safe and affordable housing, while protecting and enhancing natural environments. Kittitas County demonstrates its commitment to quality of life through access to recreational opportunities and a diverse rural economy, comprising a variety of employment opportunities.

Resource Advisory Group:

Kittitas County is an area with a distinct rural quality based upon the value and assortment of cultural and natural environments. It provides safe and effective multi-modal transportation and available, safe and affordable housing. A diverse rural and agricultural, forest and mining economy, with access to recreational opportunities and a variety of viable employment opportunities, demonstrate Kittitas County's commitment to quality of life.

Transportation Advisory Group:

Kittitas County has a distinct rural quality based upon the value and wide range of cultural and natural environments. It provides safe and effective multi-modal transportation and safe, available, and affordable housing. Kittitas County demonstrates its commitment to quality of life through access to recreational opportunities and a diverse rural and agricultural economy offering a variety of employment opportunities.