Hi M Myers,

This tower technically is far enough away from local airports to not be an issue. However, the FAA requires any obstacle 200 feet or higher to file a Form 7460-1 to the FAA. I would encourage the project sponsor to go through this process anyway in case the tower ends up being higher or for future changes to the tower that might impact its height.

For more information about the Form 7460 see: <https://oeaaa.faa.gov/oeaaa/oe3a/main/#/home>

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out.
