Good afternoon, Chace,

We would like to express our appreciation for the public's engagement during the Re-Notice of Application period. After reviewing the comments received, we have decided that no further responses will be provided at this time. If it is alright with the County, we will reach out to the Agencies who submitted comments during this period to work through their concerns directly.

With this in mind, feel free to proceed with your preparation of the staff report. Thank you for your continued support, and let us know if there's anything further we can assist with.

Hope you all have a wonderful labor day weekend!

Best regards,
