Bradley, thank you for sending this. Everything looks good but I have a concern. The history and archaeology survey needed from Connor Armi. This plat im building in was platted in 2007. It was at that time they could have done the study. I also built 2 homes right next door that were on the same stream that did not require this as well. I don't believe I should have to pay for a study on my land as it had the opportunity to do so already. Let me know your thoughts. Thank you!
