This one looks fine. No existing well or OSS to be concerned about.

Good Morning All,

As to an explanation on this application; these folks originally applied as a Segregation, and the file remains that way for now. Logistical complications mandated that they opt for a boundary Line Adjustment. Because they are in a of financial difficulty and time is of the essence, I am routing it for review now, and will have to come back and revise the application later to reflect those change. PLEASE REVIEW AS A BLA, AND SEND YOUR COMMENTS ACORDINGLY. I will sort out the details when we get it reconfigured in EDEN.

Thanks a bunch...
