The bearing and descriptions for all boundaries should be re-reviewed by the applicant. There are multiple issues including: adding up distances that do not match total line length, unclear relationships between calculated, measured and record, and record distances not being in brackets. Please make it clear for sensible retracement of the survey. Also ensure that final boundaries as shown clearly match with the lot closure report. Some record bearings and distances do not match the legal description. This may be an error, or may be referencing a different record. If it is a matter of different record, the record documents referred to shall be clearly noted.2. All roads should include ownership and surfacing.3.
