Still can't figure out why the links are not working on your end. I will just attach the master file so that you can have a look at it.

Jennifer,

These are two applications for the same person, but on different parcels. The hyperlinks have been working on my end, I will try to figure out why they are not working on yours.

Thanks Dusty, I look forward to meeting you soon!

Neither this link, nor the OC-16-00002 Jenson sent earlier worked for me. I did go to your website to look at the information on file. There was nothing available for 00002. Are these the same projects? Also, I did not see any application materials, other than maps and photos of the parcel. Does anything exist for these types of applications?

Thank you for the clarification,
Jen
