RE: Reykdal CUP (CB-15-00012)

Dear Ms. Hathaway,

Thank you for the opportunity to comment on the above listed Parcel Combination Permit Application.

After review of the application, I have the following comments:

1. The building would still need to meet current setback requirements for this zone. Property lines are required to be identified and strung or otherwise made visually apparent for measurement to the structure.

Please don't hesitate to contact me should you have any further questions.
