Hello Kelly,

I am a small business owner who resides in eastern Washington and have spent much time in Vantage WA. The owners of Vantage have done a tremendous job creating a family-oriented recreation area along the Columbia River. It would be a tragedy to see this environment revoked by Grant County's recent permit plan. Their plan shows no consideration for the good of the Eastern WA residents.

I urge you to deny Grant County's permit plan. Vantage is a town that is well maintained and family friendly. This permit plan is a detriment to eastern WA.
