Kelly:

The Department of Health (DOH) Office of Drinking Water (ODW) has the following comment:

- The proposal, regarding the “water” utility, is a “project” (per the State of Washington Department of Ecology (Ecology)) and will need to evaluate any groundwater withdrawals as a collective. The applicant should consult with Ecology regarding how this “project” definition is regulated. The applicant should also consult with Kittitas County Health regarding obtaining any rights to withdraw groundwater.
- If this development chooses to form a singular water system to serve these residences, this would be a public water system and would be a Group A system, requiring submittal to DOH ODW for a new Group A-Community for DOH ODW review and approval. Also, such a water system would require the submittal of a Water System Plan. The applicant can contact DOH ODW for details.

These are the total of DOH ODW comments.
