Good morning,

Thank you for contacting the Yakama Nation Cultural Resources Program regarding the proposed undertaking. The project lies within the traditional lands of the Pshwánapam (Upper Yakama), signatory to the Yakama Treaty of 1855 and represented by the Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakama Nation. The project is within both high to moderate areas for encountering archaeological resources. It is within proximity to the ancestral village of k'tata. We recommend a cultural resources investigation of the project area prior to ground disturbing activities.

Regards,

Corrine Camuso
